

GROVE, DELAWARE COUNTY, OKLAHOMA, FRIDAY, MARCH 26, 1915

DONATES RELICS TO UNIVERSITY

Otto Spring, a School-boy of Grove, Aids University of Oklahoma, With a Consignment of Relics.

Norman, Okla., March 24.—(Special)—The ethnological collection of the University have recently been increased by the addition of a number of relics of pre-historic life which were exhumed from the floor of a cavern in Delaware County by Otto Spring, who is a pupil in the high school at Grove. Most of them are implements and weapons which have been fashioned from chert by the chipping process. This is the second consignment of relics of a race of cave dwellers that has been sent to the University by Otto Spring, whose public spirit and willingness to help in the effort to build up the museum collections in the field of American ethnology equal his interest and energetic zeal as a collector. Representatives of eastern museums are actively engaged in prosecuting the work of excavation in Eastern Oklahoma at the present time, yet neither the University nor any other agency of the state has the means to save any part of this valuable material for the people of the state. The unselfish and patriotic public spirit of citizens of the state in sending such interesting and valuable material to the State University for preservation will be productive of lasting good.

Beaty's Prairie News

Call up "Flossie" they have in a new phone.

Bert Tanner is shipping a load of hogs this week.

Mrs. L. J. Hastings has been real sick this week, but is better at this writing.

Mrs. E. Simms likes her new home fine, but says she hated to give up the old place.

Charles Carson will leave next week for Florida, he goes to help Mr. Edmondson kill monkeys.

Snow, snow, plenty of snow

Eighty-fourth Birthday

Both young and old celebrated Mrs. Nancy Shambough's 84th birthday on last Friday, March 19th. Dinner served by Mrs. D. F. Shambough. The table groaned under the load of roasted turkey, fried chicken, boiled ham, salads, cake and pies and so much more that space won't allow us to mention all. Music was the order of the afternoon furnished on the piano and phonograph. The day being well spent, but the departure hour came too soon. The same guest having celebrated this day for a number of years and certainly hope we can celebrate many more in the same pleasant way. May there not be one absent from our crowd next year only more good friends and neighbors of Mrs. Shambough added. We are glad to know this is one occasion we look forward to, with great joy and expectation of enjoying every 19th day of March more and more.

Those present were: Mesdames Roe Asher, Frank Manning, J. J. Williams, R. W. Oldham and little daughter, Will Hardy, W. O. Brewer, J. W. Hendren, J. W. Parks and son, Johnson, E. H. Perry, Geo. Lauderdale and two children, Jno. Wallace, Ira Perry, F. M. Jones, Milo Maynard, Will Lancaster, Floyd Langley, Don Gray and son, Clarence, Grandma Burr, Misses Nina Manning and Dee Havens.

By one present.

Coming Into Their Own

Women of America should take heart, for they are slowly but surely coming into their own.

Their entrance into the political arena in certain states is having a remarkable effect upon the dulled conscience of the body politic in those commonwealths.

Take the city of Chicago as an example.

For many years the political situation there has been completely dominated by a gang of professional politicians, boodlers and blacklegs.

Today the women are in the ascendency and the gang is on the run.

In former years many thous-

PASSING OF AN OLD CITIZEN

H. H. Hampton, Who Came To This Country Forty Years Ago, Died At Age Of 88

H. H. Hampton, more familiarly known as "Uncle Harve," died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Tim Fields, Saturday, March 20th, 1915.

Uncle Harve had not been in good health for some time being afflicted principally with old age, and has gradually been growing weaker each hour the past year.

Deceased was born in Cherokee county, North Carolina in 1827, and had he lived only 24 days longer, would have reached his 88th anniversary. He was married to Elizabeth Loudermilk in an early day, who died some twenty-six years ago.

The deceased arrived in this immediate section of the Indian country forty years ago, with his family, from North Carolina, where they made their home, lived and died as it were, until now when only four daughters survive the once large family of fifteen members. Those surviving being as follows: Mesdames W. H. Doherty, Tim Fields, Dick Fields, and Miss Addie Hampton, all of whom reside in Grove or near here.

Deceased joined the Baptist church when 15 years of age. His last wish was that he be buried the old time way, viz; in a large home made coffin, a winding sheet, and remains conveyed to final resting place in a wagon, which wish or request was carried out to the letter by the relatives.

Interment taken place in Olympus cemetery, Monday afternoon, Rev. Calhoun delivering a very impressive and appropriate sermon at the Fields home.

Uncle Harve was a good man, well liked and loved and highly respected by multitudes of people in this country.

The Grove SUN extends heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved relatives, and may there be peace in his ashes.

something and efficiency. You be not to be the in the examinat pare and hand-l with all questie intelligently an J. County To the Eight Delaware Count

What A Gr

If ever you ey get rid of it, s hurry, for it is t enemy.

A grouch wit est disposition-t It will set y fellow man.

It will make y other men.

It will impar Interfere with cripple your dig you an object of eyes of other pe

It will retard your friends fr your children t your relatives to

It will turn the into a murky fi sun which God g and transform. waters of purity ness of gall.

It will strip y pull you down to write "finis" t brilliant career.

It will chill your horse, kill t your faithful dog cat scampering t

It will rival the put your fowls make music of pig.

It will make y the community, nuisance to hun object of disgust.

It is full of puri single grace, for i the devil beckonir hell.

Get rid of your

FIRS